Tenth Annual Military Appreciation Days
Stephen J Daily Government Center
Kokomo, IN

Dear Veterans:

It is a great honor and a privilege to recognize and applaud you of your hard work, commitment, and service to our state. The growing and positive support of the Kokomo community hosting this ten-day event is to be commended. Reflecting on the duty and service of those who were or who are currently serving in the Armed Forces for the tenth consecutive year is a noble feat.

We are able to enjoy the freedoms that we cherish today because of the commitment and sacrifice our veterans have made to this country. I appreciate the opportunity to express my gratitude to you, your families, and all veterans for answering the call to serve our great nation. Veterans bring a valuable set of skills to our society, namely a sense of honor, loyalty, and dedication. Military Appreciation Days is an encouraging example to venerate the lives of many that have defended our nation.

As your United States Senator and a fellow veteran, I invite you to contact my office if I may be of assistance. Best wishes in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,
